Travel Series for February: France

Interested in France? Please join children's librarian Jane Oliver-Purton on Tuesday, February 22 from noon to 1 p.m. to hear highlights from her recent trip to Paris. Topics covered will be museums, sights, and food. Come sample Jane's favorite food: crepes. This is the second program of our four monthly Travel Series programs. Reservations welcome, please call the library at 646-6230.

If you're itching to plant, come create an indoor garden. We provide three plants and bedding materials for each person. Each person must bring their own terrarium and any other personal objects such as shells or wood.

Monthly Chess Club

Monday, February 21, 6-8 p.m.

"Chess is a fascinating game. No matter how many times you play it, it's different every single time."

~Diane Basting of the DPL staff

Chess players of all age groups and skill levels are invited to Chess Club the third Monday of every month. From 6-7 p.m. is instruction; from 7-8 p.m. is open play. Come for one or both hours.

Special thanks to St. John's Northwestern Military Academy Cadets for providing chess instruction.

Free snacks!

No registration, just come.

Fourth Annual Bluegrass Jam

Sunday, Feb. 27, 2-5 p.m. at new venue Christ the King Lutheran Church, 1600 N. Genesee St. (we outgrew the old location.) Both musicians and listeners welcome. Free pie!
